

FORWARD PASS PLAY DOWNS TIGERS, 24-0

Oklahoma Sooners Prove Themselves Adepts in Open-Field Football.

M.U. MEN OUTCLASSED

Only Real Chance to Score Nipped by End After Long Sprint.

Bennie Owen's speedy, scrappy Sooners performed true to form on Rollins Field yesterday. Through a brilliant display of forward passes, which they worked almost to the exclusion of other attacks, they baffled the Missouri Tigers with their mystifying open-field game. And when the final whistle blew, they had shown themselves to be three touchdowns and a field goal better than Coach Schulte's team.

The score was 24 to 0.

Oklahoma's open style of play, the best ever exhibited on Rollins Field, tells the entire story of the Tiger defeat. With five regulars watching the game from the sidelines, crippled, the substitutes found it impossible to

Collins Stars for the Tigers

Collins was the mainstay of the Tiger backfield. He fought every minute and was responsible for a good share of the Missouri gains. Hamilton, playing his first Varsity game, showed well in the line. As for the Sooners—well, none of 'em looked poor, but solve the Sooners' lightning like attack.

How Forward Passes Helped

The story of the Missouri defeat may be told in another way—by the statistics of the game. Owen's speed demons gained 260 yards by the use of the forward pass, while the Tigers made only 35 yards via the aerial route. In ground gained by rushes the Tigers led, 166 yards to 134.

The boys from the South seemed to be able to throw and receive the ball in any part of the field and in every conceivable fashion. When it came to gaining ground through the air, the Sooners showed an endless variety of tricks. Every backfield man, both ends and a tackle figured in the thirty-three attempted forward passes, sixteen of which were successful. Many were of a double variety, in which the quarterback tossed the ball to a man behind him, who in turn hurled it yards and yards to waiting Sooner arms.

Few Chances for the Tigers

Missouri got within striking distance of the Oklahoma goal a few times, but whenever the Sooner line was threatened the Oklahoma's hard, accurate tackling and their general defensive work held the Tigers scoreless. One of Missouri's best bets came in the last period.

One of those pesky Oklahoma forward passes put the ball on Missouri's 40-yard line. When the Sooners attempted another, it was intercepted by Taylor, who hiked right off in the direction of the gymnasium. He stopped, however, about 20 yards in front of the east goal posts, for Montgomery, Oklahoma's all-Southern end, had the fleeing Tiger beaten in footwork.

Oklahoma's 42-centimeter scoring machine didn't delay a minute in starting the attack.

A moment after the kickoff the guns began to boom when McCain got away for an end run of 20 yards. Oklahoma was penalized 15 yards, but a forward pass, Geyer to McCain, netted 30 yards and put the ball on Missouri's 5-yard line. McCain lugged the leather over for a touchdown.

Two Touchdowns in First Quarter

In the same period Foster tossed the ball to Montgomery for a 20-yard gain. With the ball five yards from the scoring zone, Foster made a short end run for six more points.

Captain Geyer's trusty toe added three more in the second quarter, on a place kick from the 25-yard line.

Oklahoma slackened up on her sensational attack in the third period and failed to score, but the fourth quarter saw the Sooners springing their same old thrills. It was a forward pass, of course, that landed the pigskin on the Tigers' 6-yard line. A 2-yard gain by Geyer and a forward pass, Geyer to

KANSAS COACH IN TOWN

Herman Olcott, Entertained by C. L. Brewer, Sees Oklahoma Game. Coach Herman Olcott, a citizen of Lawrence, Kan., since September, who has among his chief duties the job of trying to defeat Missouri's football team, was in Columbia yesterday, an interested spectator of Oklahoma's forward passing exhibition.

In contrast to the old way, when "scouts" slipped into town in the dead of night and witnessed the game through a knothole in the fence, the Kansas coach was entertained by C. L. Brewer, director of athletics, who saw that he got a seat where he could see everything that happened.

The Kansas football tutor didn't even wear gumshoes or a false mustache. Announcing himself as soon as he arrived, he was entertained by the Missouri athletic authorities all the time he was here.

So far the rest of the members of the faculty of the School of Law have not carried canes. According to members of the third-year class, the faculty may be requested to fall into line.

MOBERLY 7; U. H. S. 6

Failure to Kick Goal Loses Football Game for University High.

Failure to kick goal after a touchdown caused the University High School football team to lose its game with the Moberly High School team at Moberly Friday. The score was 7 to 6.

Wilson, left tackle, scored the touchdown for the Columbians, after scooping up the pigskin on a Moberly fumble and racing twenty yards. Chambers failed to kick goal.

Moberly scored in the first period of play, before the University High boys got their bearings on the foreign soil. Wilbur Hutsell accompanied the team on the trip. The University High team plays Mexico Military Academy at Mexico October 25.

ALLIES MUST HASTEN OR SERBS GIVE WAY

Teutons Tighten the Circle Drawn Around King Peter's Forces.

ARE LOSING HEAVILY

Invaders Will Reach Constantinople Unless Relief Comes Soon.

By United Press. PARIS, Oct. 16.—Serbia's foes strove tonight to complete and tighten the steel circle they had already drawn nearly around King Peter's dominion. Bloody fighting raged in the north, south, east and west. The Serbs contest every inch desperately. The Allies estimate that they have killed 26,000 Germans and Austrians. Many Bulgarians have fallen.

The Serbians themselves, however, were losing heavily and gradually going back. Their only hope is in help very soon from the Allies. They have received a little aid already from some of the French and British who recently landed at Saloniki. These are holding back the Bulgarians in their attempt to close in on the Serb forces between Valondovo and Rodovo.

Serbs in Last Ditch

By United Press. PARIS, Oct. 16.—Beset on three sides by the Central Powers' armies, the Serbians are making a fight in the last ditch today. Allied help must arrive soon, or it will be unavailing.

The Serbians claim to be holding their ground in the east and along the Drina, but admit that the Austro-German drive is progressing through the Morava Valley, despite enormous losses. The invaders are almost certain to reach Constantinople unless the Serbians are speedily reinforced.

Austrians Drive Back Serbs

By United Press. BERLIN, Oct. 16.—Austrian troops have thrown the Serbians across the Balcica, near Vinca, the Vienna war office announced tonight.

The Germans have reconquered positions gained by the French and English in their great offensive this week, the war office announced tonight. The offensive referred to was the Allies' recent drive in northern France and Belgium.

London Pleased, Except in Balkans

By United Press. LONDON, Oct. 16.—Except in the Balkans, the war situation is regarded as improved, especially along the eastern front, according to announcements today. The Germans in a counter attack at Wessels, where the lines were broken, have gained no indication of checking the Russian advance. Reports of German gains west of Verdun were denied, and minor gains in the Champagne and Vosges regions are claimed to be offset by French acquisitions.

The Serbians, in a magnificent resistance against Mackensen in the Morava Valley today, defeated the attempt to encircle the left wing near Semendria, inflicting heavy losses. The invaders continue to make slow progress. Near the Grecian frontier, the Bulgarians are trying to destroy the railroad by which the Allies hope to reach Nish from Saloniki. Some British and French are helping the Serbians to defend the line.

The Germans, weakened by withdrawals for the Serbian fight, lost ground at Dvinak, Tarnopol and other places today. Great Britain has extended her proclamation against the Central Powers to include Bulgaria.

THE WEATHER

(Report issued Saturday morning.) For Columbia and vicinity: Sunday generally fair; not much change in temperature. For Missouri: Sunday generally fair.

Weather Conditions. There still is much cloudy weather east of the Rocky Mountains, but the pressure has gradually increased and consequently precipitation has been limited to relatively small areas, principally in the lower and middle Plains States; the heaviest rains in Kansas and Southwest Missouri. Temperatures have not changed materially; in some of the Rocky Mountain states they approximate freezing values, but in the remainder of the country they range from about 50 degrees in the North to 70 degrees or higher in the South Atlantic and Gulf states.

lot as soon as possible on which to erect a new city hall. The time has come, they believe, when the city should own its own hall.

This was the sentiment at the mass meeting at the courthouse Friday night, presided over by Mayor J. M. Batterton. There was some disagreement as to what money the council should use to purchase the lot and erect the new hall, but if there is anyone in Columbia who is opposed to the purchase of a lot he did not show himself at the meeting.

Mayor Batterton said the city had about $45,000 in the treasury.

There was some debate whether the council should use the profits of the city water and light plant or whether bonds should be issued. The general opinion was that the water and light fund was not sacred; that it belonged to the city, to use for any needed improvements. A resolution was passed that the council should buy a lot with whatever funds were available.

NEXT BIGGEST NAVY PROPOSED FOR U.S.

Program Calls for Fifty-Five Ships and Army 1,350,000 Strong.

READY IN SIX YEARS

Sale of Quarter Billion Panama Canal Bonds May Help Raise Money.

By United Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—To make the United States navy second only to that of Great Britain and to build up an army 1,350,000 strong before 1922 is the new program for improving the national defense. According to the highest official authorities this is the program that was outlined tonight. It has President Wilson's approval.

An armada of fifty-five battle cruisers, super-dreadnaughts or battleships within six years, to cost $500,000,000, is the Navy Department's aim in the building program.

Army to Exceed a Million

By 1922 an army of 1,350,000 men is planned, to comprise 400,000 active and 400,000 reserve "continentals," or citizen soldiers. It is planned to include also 140,000 actives and 280,000 reserves in the regular forces and 125,000 state militia.

A sale of a quarter of a billion dollars' worth of Panama Canal bonds to raise money for carrying out the national defense program was practically decided by the Administration today. These are bonds authorized, but not used for building the canal.

To Be Used Only For Defense

The money received for the bonds will be used only for the defense program. The amount needed above the canal bond receipts can be raised from the general revenue, the President hopes.

The revenues of the Government are being studied to learn if it is possible to raise funds for the defense program without the additional bond issue.
